Mrs. Nellie Zada Rice Molyneux,
Syracuse, N. Y.

Madam: — I was just looking over some of your letters of 1913. Quite recently I rec'd "Woburn Births" from a firm in Boston, and in looking over the Eatons I find our Joseph Eaton son of Jonathan & Lucy, was born there May 30, 1766, and died there June 23, 1818, aged 63 yrs. His brother older Jonathan Jr. was born June 18, 1763, married Mary Bruce of Woburn, Apl. 19, 1787.

They lived there and had issue:—
1st Polly=(Mary), b. Apr. 17, 1788,
m. Mr. Wm Jordan of Boston, Oct. 6, 1819.
2nd Jonathan, b. May 1, 1790, married
Nancy B. Abbott of Woburn, Apr. 29, 1819
died Aug. 19, 1842.
3d Lucy, b. Nov. 28, 1796,
m Mr. Stanly Wyman of Woburn
March 26, 1828.
4th George, b. Nov. 13, 1802
m. d.

Thus you see they lived & died
in Woburn.
Jonathan Sr. died there May 19,
1806, aged 71 yrs.
Lucy, Sr. died there, Sept. 30, 1811, aged 73 yrs.
So you see they did not moved to Penn.

My brother found in Boston & in Woburn the marriage Int. of Joseph Eaton of Woburn, & Nov. 2, 1787 to marry Ruhamah Snow of Jaffrey, N. H. She was called Hannah at birth May 27, 1767 but (perhaps) not liking the name, may have called herself Ruhamah. He found where she receipted for her share of old Aunt Abigail Snow's estate, that she calls herself Ruhamah Eaton about 1819. So she outlived Joseph. I have an idea they lived in and near Woburn. I think they are the ones in " Census of 1790.

Grandfather Joseph Snow born in Woburn, July 12, 1774, was not living with his mother Mrs. Oliver Proctor then & after but he lived in Woburn in 1795, and I think as he came 16 that summer & 1790, that he lived with his sister Ruhamah & family, and is the one included in 2/00/3 of Joseph Eaton's census. I find some children of Joseph among the deaths there. I have all 3 books now: Marriage, Births, & Deaths of Woburn.

Now if you wish any records from them, just let me know, and it will not cost you a cent, only postage.

You know I told you that if I found out any more about it, I would let you know.

In Mass. census of 1790, I find Jonathan Eaton (sb.) — 1-1-2 which probably means, himself - John - wife + Mary.

In Jaffrey census I find no Joseph Eaton, only David, + John Eaton were heads of families in 1790.

Joseph Eaton of Woburn had his intentions published in Woburn, Nov. 3, 1787, to marry Ruhamah Snow of Jaffrey, N. H. Something probably occurred to defer marriage at that time, but they were married later, July 28, 1788, and prob. went back to Woburn to live, as Joseph Eaton appears in the census there in 1790.

Do you see that $1.00 report did not amount to "fiddlesticks" I hope that the rest of your book is more authentic.

I have written off all the vital statistics of Eatons in Woburn and will send them to you.

I don't know where you get such
